

Visually Impaired

Klein ISD offers Vision services to eligible students who qualify as visually impaired. These services include but are not limited to, direct braille instruction for students who read braille, instruction in the use of low vision aides, such as, magnifiers and telescopes, and conferences with staff and teachers to aide in accommodations for students. Also included for students are related services in the area of Orientation and Mobility travel skills, to assist with travel skills and independent living skills.